The 12th Corps and 6th Division in Krakow

9. The headquarters of the 12th Corps and of the 6th Division are collocated at the end of Warynskiego (formerly Gertrudy) Street, Krakow. The 12th Corps, in addition to the 6th Division, consists of two divisions which are independent of WKW Krakow, and are located at Wadowice (No. 12) and Krośno (No. 9). The 6th Division consists of the following reinforced infantry regiments:
 - a. The 14th Reinforced Infantry Regiment, FPN 1034, in Tarnow (N 50-01, E 20-59)
 - b. The 16th Reinforced Infantry Regiment, FPN 1597, in Krakow-Bronowice
 - c. The 18th Reinforced Infantry Regiment in Wadowice (N 49-53, E 19-29)
10. Quartermaster unit (JW) 2525 which is stationed at the end of 18-stego Stycznia (formerly Wybickiego) Street, Krakow, supplies all troops within the voivodship. It is subordinate to the voivodship quartermaster branch.

Other Military or Paramilitary Units in Krakow

11. An air force regiment is located in the Rakowice section of Krakow. An infantry battalion for guard duties is also located in the town.
12. A WOP training center for personnel and dogs is located on Wojeodzka Street, which is behind Rondo Square, at the end of Mogilska Street, Krakow. Officially known as the WOP Military Unit, its secret name is the Central WOP Training Installation (Centralny Osrodek Szkolenia WOP).
13. A KBW brigade is stationed in the Biglany Przegorzały quarter of Krakow, which is also the location of ration stores.
14. A small training area (poligon), which is used principally by signal units, is located about five kilometers south of Krakow, in the Mysłowice suburb.
15. In 1955 work was launched on a radar installation (osrodek radarowy) in the Mogila suburb of Krakow, near the entrance to Nowa Huta. Access to the site is based upon possession of a special pass.
16. A Katyusha-16 rocket launcher unit is stationed in the Bronowice-Azory section of Krakow. Only politically reliable officers with the rank of lieutenant and above serve in this unit, which is directly subordinate to the Warsaw Military District Command.

Military Installations Outside Krakow

17. A training area for land forces is located about 30 kilometers northeast of Debka (sic) and 14 kilometers southwest of Mielec (N 50-17, E 21-25). Three or four divisions, normally including the 6th, 9th and 12th, are trained there between May and September.³
18. Emergency weapons and ammunition stores are located underground in Sosnowka, about 18 kilometers east of Mielec. The area, 12 to 15 square kilometers in extent, is restricted to military personnel, Soviet tracked vehicles designated 22 (?) and Ya (?)-13, as well as Czech vehicles, are stored there. The area above ground is forested, and is used for military training.
19. A summer training area for the aforementioned 14th, 16th and 18th Infantry Regiments is located eight kilometers east of Krośno and 18 kilometers northwest of Sanok.
20. A training area for infantry and armored units, including the independent components of the 6th and 12th Divisions and sniper units, is located in a wooded area about two kilometers east of Sandomierz (N 50-41, E 21-45).
21. During the winter months when the training areas are not in use they are guarded by KBW units with dogs, and are equipped with trip-wire installations. In Sosnowka, where there are 11 alarm points, two explosions in 1952 destroyed two warehouses containing vehicles and lubricants. The perpetrators of the act training

22. Two adjacent areas in Lupkow Stary and Lupkow Nowy, the last towns before the Soviet border, are used only during the winter for joint maneuvers of troops not under the authority of WKW Krakow. Stores for the troops, mostly for bridging equipment, are located along the railroad track in Komancza (N 49-20, E 22-04), while armored railroad cars are stored in a nearby wooded area. The stores are camouflaged as residences.

Conscription Procedures

23. Polish youths twenty years of age are registered and undergo medical examinations in March-April or October-November of each year, and are called up within six months to a year. However, draftees for the navy, KBW and WOP are also registered in March-April, but are assigned immediately. Recruits are notified about where to report about three weeks in advance. The draft book of regular draftees is withdrawn when they report to their units.

24. Following are the terms of service in Polish military branches:

- a. Field units: two years
- b. Air force: three years
- c. Navy: four years
- d. KBW and WOP: 27 months
- e. Labor and mine battalions: 18 months⁴

Comments:

1. It is believed that "K" designates operational material, since all incoming correspondence was so classified during the events of October 1956. 25X1
2. Orders relating to cartographic revisions are designated "A".
3. The 6th Division, along with its counterparts, holds four to five-day exercises annually. Brigade exercises, of similar duration, take place three or four times a year.
4. Generally, criminal and politically unreliable elements are assigned to the labor battalions.
5. Comment: Some of the ranks are not consonant with the officers' positions, especially in paragraphs "j", "l", and "u". 25X1

Legend to Sketch

1. An armored brigade, which is stationed in the Pradnik Czerwony quarter and is equipped with T-34 and T-54 tanks. Tank repair shops are also on the site.
2. A cattle farm, which supplies meat to military units in the area, is located in the Piaskiwiecki quarter next to the Woladuchacha quarter, on the road to Swoszowice.
3. Wheat and other supply stores for the army are located on Romanowicza Street, near Dabrowskiego Street, Krakow. About 30 one-story warehouses are located there, most of which are made of bricks, while some are plastered. There is one three-story building for the storage of grain. A railroad spur leads to the warehouses.
4. An independent sniper battalion (samodzielny batalion strzelcow wyborowych) is stationed on Rakowicka Street, near the arms and ammunition stores. (See Item No. 19 below.)
5. Headquarters of the Quartermaster Branch of Krakow voivodship, as well as its food stores.
6. A school for police officers, near the Kopiec Krakusa hill.
7. Military gas station, which have been located since about 1954 in the street previously named 29 Listopada (present name unknown).
8. Headquarters of the 6th Division on Warynskiego (formerly Gertrudy) Street.
9. A KBW guards battalion on Stradomska Street, which occupies the prewar building of the Corps Headquarters.
10. An intelligence unit of the 6th Division, on Wroclawska Street.
11. A military railroad station, a point of departure for training exercises. The station has underground stores, which are connected by a passage with a nearby military camp.
